

Charles R. Drew University is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Friday Noon Lecture Series

The College of Medicine is sponsoring an education series: Friday Noon Lecture Series. The series is intended for faculty, students, and staff in all of our university programs. The purpose is to give an update on medicine, science, policy, and health care issues related to our mission, health equity, and care for underserved populations. CME credit will be offered on June 7, 21, 28 and July 12. For questions and suggestions contact the Office of CME at (323) 563-9349.
